we believe that such an opening may result from congenital problem in the development of the inner ear, from certain infectious diseases, and/or from trauma his breath test result was .105 doctors and pharmacists need to be accountable for their actions, and particularly if they stray into illegal territory