each video and all print activities work to bring home the message to your students to stay away from drugs.
you just don’t like the fact that someone says they don’t like it because of god’s moral standard